MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 4.-All arrangements for holding the indoor champlonshp meet of the Central Association A. A. U. at the Exposition building to-morrow night have been completed and complete success is assured by the entries of the best athletes in the West in the various events. In the absence of the Chicago Uuiversity and First Regiment Athletic Association contingents, the battle for supremacy will be between the University of Wisconsin and Milwaukee Athletic Club. The Wisconsin University with its twenty-five entries is generally conceded first place, with the Milwaukee Athletic Club a close second. Third place will probably go to the Central Y. M. C. Indianapolis Amateur Teams Play Exhibition Game—Swift Work of Sampsell Wins Applause.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, Ind., March 4.- The All-Star and Tom Benton teams of the Indianapolis Commercial Polo League played here tonight, the contest resulting in a victory for the All-Stars after 3:48 overtime. The sport-loving people of this city who were in attendance and witnessed their first game of roller polo were very favorably impressed with the game and should a league of smaller cities be organized the teams of which would be made up of the amateur players next season, Columbus will ask for a franchise. The game was played in the local Y. M. C. A., which had been specially arranged for the occasion. The work of little Sampsell for the All-Stars drew forth great applause. CHICAGO FIGHT GOSSIP.

Yanger and Mowatt May Be Matched by Waverly Club.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CHICAGO, Ill., March 4.-Charles Felt, manager and match-maker of the Waverly Athletic Club, returned from the East today, where he had been to secure firstclass contests for his organization. While he failed to sign any of the top notchers, Felt secured promises to fight here from Eddie Hanlon, Kid McCoy, Gus Ruhlin, Kid Carter and others. Hanlon, he says, will not meet Benny Yanger in a six-round tilt, as he is not accustomed to the short limit game. The other boxers named have no choice as to who they will fight. The Chicagoan witnessed the Munroe-Sharkey contest. Munroe, he said, made an excellent showing. He indulged in no wild swings and fought a careful battle, being con-tinuously coached by McCoy. Felt yesterday offered $1,500 for a contest between Tommy Mowatt and Benny Yanger, which, Mrs. Austin's pancakes will help you to if he can secure, he will stage on March 1 28, the club's first show.
